Additional information concerning this final examination Certificate
The German Chambers of Industry and Commerce differ significantly from the Chambers of Commerce in the USA and other countries in scope and in legal form: They are public corporations and the competent bodies under the Federal Vocational Training Act (including exams of further training).
This examination document was awarded by the CCI Munich. The recipient is a skilled employee who has, after several years of professional work, experience and training, successfully completed a business examination, which was compiled and approved by experts in various fields of business. The document certifies that its recipient has demonstrated the ability of making responsible business decisions in his area of expertise.
This document is not a diploma of a German University or a University of applied sciences.
